Order of New Business:

1. Law Enforcement Report
 - a. Street Sign damaged / stolen
 - i. The trucking company that hit the sign on Harlan / Sayre will pay to replace the signage components per Mayor Purcell.
 - ii. Purcell: Local residents are trying to find out who took the signage from Crittenden Ct.
 - iii. Martin / Purcell: Cincinnati Crime Stoppers – may provide a reward for information to solve a crime.
2. Fire Department Report
 - a. Burton: The report was provided at the meeting.
 - b. “Halloweenie” at the Fire Department is on for October 31st from 5-8pm.
3. Crittenden Ambulance Tax District Report
 - a. Report provided by Lee Burton.
4. Ordinance No. 307-2022: Truck Weight Ordinance Amendment – 1st Reading – Purcell
 - a. 1st Reading was conducted by Mayor Purcell.
 - b. The topic regards work trucks w/ capacity up to 36k pounds crossing the sidewalks. The sidewalks are not constructed to handle this amount of weight. Plus, the area between the street curb and sidewalk contains utilities that are not protected against this type of weight.
 - c. Tanner: What is the standard weight for a one-ton truck? 24k pounds? 26k pounds? Modify the reading to 26k pounds from 24k pounds?

Order of Old Business:

1. Street Rehabilitation Project: Pinhook Place Sub. / Eagle Creek / Martin / Leehi – Purcell
 - a. The project has started and Eaton Asphalt is proceeding with Eagle Creek Drive first.
 - b. Eagle Creek Drive: Start Thursday (10/13).
 - c. Paving on Eagle Creek Drive on Monday (10/17).
 - d. Schedule: Eagle Creek is first – Pinhook Pl Subdivision is believed to be next.

2. Sidewalk project: Color or no color?
 - a. Humphrey: Motion to have color sections along the sidewalk
 - b. Second: Tanner
 - c. Discussion:
 - i. Funds for this project are through the ARPA funds.
 - ii. Dusing: Just want to ensure the corner of Violet Rd / Main Street replicates what was installed previously.
 - iii. Livingood: I am struggling with the race strip along Main Street.
 - iv. Burton: I am concerned w/ the strip from a safety perspective.
 - d. All 6 Councilperson's voted - yes.
 - e. Humphrey: I would like to nominate Mr. Dusing to do some research on other cities that have done some colored / decorative concrete projects.
 - f. Motion: Bohman motion was to do the strip in color versus a single block design.
 - g. Second: Livingood
 - h. Vote: All 6 – Yes.
 - i. Wait on the color to do some research – give Council some time to do some research.
3. Oakwood Drive Project Status? The project will be re-bid during this winter and the project will be done in the Spring.
